Perfect for a day at the beach or reminiscing at home by the fire. Tommy Vee's melodies and strong dance beats are also inclusive of lush sweeping ballads influenced heavily by the vocal stylings of the Eagles, Little River Band and ELO. 10 MP3 Songs POP: Party Pop, EASY LISTENING: Love Songs Details: Since the completion of the CD Liquid Life in early winter 2003, Tommy Vee has performed music from the CD in the "Bang Bang Burlesque" show at the Pyramid in New York's East Village. He has also debuted in an original video and dance piece at SBNY in New York and most recently performed at The Sound Factory for the 2003 La Cage Aux Faux New Year's Eve party featuring Junior Vasquez. Tommy Vee has performed original material in some of New York's most renowned nightspots. Tommy Vee first started his live club performances with Tommy Vee and the Cabana Boys at the notorious Limelight with an evening entitled Summer Camp hosted by Sybil Bruncheon. Tommy Vee was then featured at the New York Business Exposition and the Bar Show at the Jacob Javits Center in New York City. As a highlight for benefits, Tommy Vee was featured at two all star fund raisers for Miracle House at club Metronome in New York's Flat Iron District. For large-scale venues, Tommy Vee has prepared and performed in revues that contained original music and unique mixes at Avery Fisher Hall, The United Nations and The Gift Show at 225 Fifth Avenue in New York City. His ingenuity in "avant-garde" entertainment was presented at Bard'O with Male Flesh featuring vetran DJ Phillip Kimball; a review by HX Magazine described Tommy Vee's show as a "visually stimulating live performance, featuring new mixes of old favorite club tunes". Additionally, Tommy Vee has produced hot revues and dance parties at Webster Hall, Twirl, Ellen's Stardust Theater and the club Tatou in New York City. Look for Tommy Vee this fall on the West Coast for an up-coming Palm Springs performance and on the East Coast for night club bookings.
