I was trapped within my shell, A friend came by to offer help. Reaching down, he pulled me out, finding someone bigger than myself. Like the water at Niagara Falls, Like a speeding car into a wall. The simple things that overwhelm, This is what my heart felt. Inside me, this empty void remains...Like a canyon echoing your name... If there's no You in US, If there's no U in US. If there's a time you're scared of losing faith, Scared is only sACred with 2 things out of place. Let Your spirit fill me,let my soul awaken. It's You alone, I put all my faith in. Ever wonder if you've become a modern day prodigal son? Try to find the way back to Him? You've got to start by searching within... I can feel your very presence, leading me down a road I've never traveled Your Spirit came, You came to prove our souls were cleansed, our faith renewed. And Lord, THAT ROCK WAS YOU We're lost without You, Our mere existence is all about You. Just when we think weve got our life all synchronized, we learn that if You're not in it, we're just out of time.
