Terry Gasking has had an outstanding career. His lectures and seminars have been enjoyed by many thousands of Managers and Students. He began writing books on Financial Management at the end of the 1990s and even at that early date he could foresee and even forecast in his books that a massive Recession would hit the Developed World in 2008 to 2010. In this book 'Double Your Money' he turns his attention to the next 10 years with his wealth of knowledge and his insights into the financial future. He guides the reader into some simple steps that he believes would Double their Wealth over the next 3 to 5 years. He also describes the situations that made the massive recession inevitable and documents his letters to the Government and the Prime Minister in which he warned of the impending financial disaster that would be made worse by their intended actions. Finally he reveals the actions that should have been taken to avert the financial disaster - actions that will still prove to be necessary before a cure is complete.
