Truth, Love, and honesty are what make Alache stand out in this crowded industry of fake smiles and misleading music 11 MP3 Songs URBAN/R&B: R&B Pop Crossover, POP: Today's Top 40 Details: Alache, a twenty three year old singer/ songwriter, has always known the incredible power of music. Growing up as the Daughter of her father, a military officer and her mother, an international evangelist, she quickly learned the importance of having a strong message behind her music. While most were learning to talk at the age of 1 she was already singing her heart out. Alache represents a new breed of inspirational pop/urban music. Her vision is to reach out to a lost generation, to become a shining light in the midst of darkness. With influences such as Miriam Makeba, Marvin Gaye, Stevie Wonder, Areatha Franklin and many more, Alache adapted the soul of the old and blended it with the flare of the new. Her style is unique to say the least. Her sound is as rich and as colorful as the culture that runs through her veins. Alache is African for watchlady, and leading the youth of the world with a positive and uplifting message is exactly what she aims to do through every song she writes. Ever since the first time she stepped into the booth she knew that music was her calling. The path that has chosen her has been a long journey and is far from over. With a new cd Produced by Capn Cookem Productions she has finally found that perfect mix of commercially appealing music, laced with the genuinely earthy substance of her soul. What you will find with one listen to her newest cd entitled My Life: It is what it is will be exactly what you have been looking for. Truth, Love, and honesty are what make Alache stand out in this crowded industry of fake smiles and misleading music. Remembering her past she brings you a soulful blend of yesterday and looking to the future she brings a sound that will define a new era of R&B Music.
