Description: Arlene Kole was a little girl who dreamed of nothing but singing, but life has a way of changing ones path. The responsibilities of marriage and family came early for Arlene, and like most of us, put her aspirations aside while her family took precedence. Her mantra; one day. Her unwavering commitment to a lifelong goal has been rewarded. It is her hope that her story will inspire others who have a dream on hold After years of cooking, cleaning, changing diapers, session singing, waitressing. club dates, weddings, retail sales, vocal coaching, bar mitzvahs and any other paying gig, Arlene felt her window of opportunity had closed. With the kids grown and mass media perpetuating the idea that there is value only in youth, Arlene, as most women eventually do, sought to reinvent herself ... to find a lost identity and write a new chapter in her life. This record is that chapter. It chronicles the life of a wife and parent while sending an inspiring message of hope to those who have given up on their dreams, whatever the reason. People who are interested in Carly Simon Sarah McLachlan Shawn Colvin should consider this download.
