Government name: Travis Wilson birth date: 02/15/83 Birthplace: Newport news, Va. age: 21 Po pop-u-lar (noun.) representin the po people (adj.) 1?2 of the Bossz First of all I aint no killa, but dont push me. man, its been a long time comin. I can almost remember this sh*t like yesterday. It was a cold a*s night, at least thats what my mom told me, on the 15th day of February , I was conceived by a powerful woman. Her name is Norma Louise Wilson. Mom dukes is the type of character that would give her last just for a laugh. You get it? My father goes by the name loverman. That was something established back when his band, the rockays, was the jump off. My father was born and raised to be a pure bred old school hustla. Hes the type of nig*a that wont fu*k wit

ya if he cant make no money wit ya. And yea speaking of my brother, its just something special about that dude. Tell me this: how in the he*I can one person be a full time graduate student, music producer/ artist, and a full time social worker? Yea right. I know! thats just a little too much. Now, all jokes aside, I love my fu*king brother! I dont know what Id be without him, besides the right thing. He has showed me everything a nig*a from the hood could possibly show me. From bagging up to breaking down, from bagging bit*hes to baggy pants, from bags of money to people thats funny, from white cops to black cops, and just being a man in general. You should always have somebody like that on your team, cause money talks and bit*h sh*t walks. And yea, Im bout that money! So holla at your boy. Ok ok. Po popular VEGO: (noun.) A go-getter (adj.) 1?2 of tha Bossz. Why cant it all be so simple? I remember when my mom first told me that a hard head makes a soft a*s. but anyway, I had to learn the hard way. Just imagine living in a county wit a population of less than 6,000 folks, 5 stoplights, and 3 corner stores. That sounds like some claustrophobic sh*t! but despite all the distraction, myself, my mother and 3 little brothers are still survivors. Ive always had to play the father figure. Yea, just like any father, he walked out on us at an young age, but I managed to ,mature into something serious. My mom, on the other hand, is more like a big sister/ supporter, yea. She works from 9 to 5, got 3 boys and still holds her fort down. The one thing that I regret in life was dropping out of school. But you know what - a mans got to do what a mans got to do. oh, I almost forgot, I finished school in june of 2004. But anyway, Im on the grind better than ever now. You see, I grew up around them old school cats, so now its like Im young, but Im living like Im 30 plus. So believe I roll with goons, they shop and go get them. Im bout paper and ready for war. THE ALBUM WAS NAMED "WE HERE" TO SHOW THE WORLD THAT THE BOSS'z HAVE ARRIVED AND ARE HERE TO STAY!!
