Electric southern folk-pop with outside influences 10 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk Pop, POP: with Live-band
Production Details: Dan Walters is a multi-instrumentalist, singer/songwriter, composer living in Central Florida. "Guesswork" is Dan's follow-up to "Fortunata," and his first release for One Eleven Records. Walters' melodic gift and sonic imagination continue to evolve making this his best record yet. Dan performs regularly with The Villagers, and also performs solo on guitar and piano with vocal. Walters is a recording studio veteran and has worked with many artists including LFO, Art Garfunkel, Leon Russell, Ira Sullivan, Laura Chandler, Erich Russek and the Reverend Billy C. Wirtz. He is currently the bassist in avant/jazz group The What?Thing and bassist/keyboardist in The Les Dudek Band.
