A mixture of folk and jazz 13 MP3 Songs ROCK: Folk Rock, JAZZ: Smooth Jazz Details: Even if we practice the act of giving everyday, we often forget to do it without expectations. Give is a musical band from Montreal that adapts itself according to the events they participate in. It was formed by sound engineer/ guitarist Stephan Ritch and singer/ flutist Caroline St-Louis. Whether their presentations are simple and acoustic, or colourful with full production, costumes and dancers, their music is always a true gift from the dimension of sound. Give's debut album is entitled Without Expectations. The album is in english, having been inspired that way. Music being a well known universal language, the attention of the public is obtained naturally... leaving the listener with a true mission: to practice the act of giving everyday, without expectations. "Give is a musical treasure from Montreal. A mix of world beat, hip-hop and alternative pop, their music can best be described as an inspirational journey... those rare instances we never want to end." -Shout With Joy communications BC
