Features sax legend Brandon Fields, bassist John Pena, Walt Fowler on trumpet and flugelhorn, and Jon on keyboards and percussion. 11 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Smooth Jazz, JAZZ: Jazz Fusion Details: Jon Hartmann is a veteran L.A. keyboard session player who has worked with The Platters, Ike Tina Turner, Dee Dee Bridgewater, Bobby Womack, the Staple Singers, Eartha Kitt, Sal Marquez, Morey Amsterdam, J. P. Morgan, the Ink Spots, and many others. He studied composition with Roy Harris at UCLA, and joined the Musician's Union at 18. His writing reflects a range of influences from Frank Zappa to Igor Stravinsky, with a little Miles and Brubeck thrown in for good measure. Writing, in L.A.'s La Opinion, Ricardo Camarena said that '3 if by air' is "...great Jazz fusion...the pure essence of funk with a latin flavor." Guitarist/composer Steve Khan said Jon "...has always had tremendous compositional gifts, and '3 if by air' gives us all a chance to sample them." This recording of original material is the blending of orchestral Rock with Jazz fusion. Brandon Fields, sax; Walt Fowler, trumpet flugelhorn; Ron Hershewe, guitar; Michael Rosen, drums, percussion and chromatic harmonica; John Pena Lynn Woolever share the bass chair, and Jon on keyboards. Enjoy.
