Details: "I have always been fascinated with places. Beautiful places, peaceful places, sun baked and ocean steeped places. Anywhere you could go that would make you feel a certain way, and the sights and sounds that would bring you back once you were far from there. This album tries to capture some of the most compelling and beautiful places that I've been a witness to, in reality or in dream." BIO M. Gene Hoffman was born in the shadow of the towering Rocky Mountains. His first music was plunked out at the age of two, when he toddled into his Dad's recording studio and decided he liked it there. His music began to win awards as early as elementary school. Growing up with musicians and artists helped solidify his love for music and expression, and living in Australia and spending time in China and on the islands of the Caribbean Sea opened his mind to many influences and cultures. His music reflects his love for nature and simple things, and is often spiced by his "thing for rhythm."
