Details: Maelo grew up in the mountains of Puerto Rico where at a very young age his inclinations for the music was showing. With the Influence of the native music with a mix of contemporary and traditional jazz with a sweet and simple touch of the Caribbean sound, Maelo try to find a place that will bring it all together. He produced and recorded "ALEGORIA". The allegoric way to speak the wonders of God through music. In this production he revives old Hispanic hymns like "Pescador De Hombres" and "Unidos". He also brings other sounds like "Alegoria", Give You Honor and Bajo La Ceiba where the Puerto Rico's "Cuatro" and the sound of Taylor and Tacoma Guitars get married in the landscape of other instruments. Other tracks like "Soy Libre" brings the latin jazz sound to the mix a la Santana flavor. He is now established in South Florida and has visited Honduras, Puerto Rico, Guatemala and all South Florida with conferences and ministry in music. His brother David Reyes and his friends Eddie Casillas and Carlos Castro are the main artists that form the M&R Christian Music "Alegoria team". Maelo always says "No can do without them" Enjoy the music and be blessed! Ismael (Maelo) Reyes
