Details: Sara Diamond is an incredible talent born and musically nourished in Montreal, Canada. Only 13 years old, she is already being compared to the likes of Nora Jones, Bonnie Raitt and Christina Aguilera. Saras soulful voice, charm and warm stage presence leave audiences in awe and adoration. Saras recent performance at The Montreal Bell Center had the audience of over 10,000 people on their feet cheering before she had finished the first half of A Moment Like This. In addition to her live performances, Sara has recorded dozens of albums for the award winning, Billboard charting KIDZUP label distributed across North America. Singing since the age of five, Sara continues to study voice and piano, often accompanying herself in original and cover material. A diverse talent, Sara is equally at home with other skills, which include acting, ballet, tap, jazz, hip-hop, figure skating, and more. Saras career is set to last well beyond her childhood. Her talent is already valid, authentic and professional, combining her young, bright spirit with an exceptional maturity well beyond her years. Tags: pop
