Anderson, during the 1940's, and recorded at Dream Quest studio in Philadelphia. These timely messages of love, evoke the passion of Celine Dion, the heartfelt renderings of Tim McGraw, and the sensuous serenades of Robin Thicke. Marine Corps veteran of World War II, Thomas P. Anderson's tender side was revealed in the many love songs he composed before his death in 1951. While reading her father's love poems and lyrics, Scheryll was deeply moved and connected to her past. It was her father's "dream" and it is now her "quest," to share with the world his romantic prose, and showcase his lyrical genius. It is a pleasure for Blazing Passion Publishing to offer a sampling of Thomas P. Anderson's devotions and tributes, handed down to Scheryll by her beloved mother, Maria.
