When good girls go bad, very, very bad... The minute Carrie meets tattooed, bad-boy bartender Dallan, her decision is made. He's the one, her ticket to freedom and a new, independent life. She's tired of dictates and zero dates and following the path laid out before her by her well-meaning-but-completely-out-of touch-with-her-reality religious parents. Dallan sees the buttoned-up, full-of-curves woman outside the grocery store and feels the flames of hell licking at his heels. When she asks him for directions to the large, nearby university where she's starting work, his gut-twisting lust for her doesn't diminish, but those flames start to singe his tough-as-nails hide. With Dallan's promise of not sleeping with anyone associated with the university his father is the dean of about to go up in smoke, Carrie takes the first exit off the Heavenly Highway straight onto Sin Street. She wants Dallan to teach her all the things a good girl should never know, and she won't take Hell no for an answer. Reader Advisory: What Dallan does with a beer bottle may be illegal in forty-eight out of fifty states...and at least two territories.
