Dance of the Rogue Cris Anson Book 4 in the Dance series. Love-'em-and-leave-'em bad-boy Rolf has met his match, and she's nothing like his usual dalliances. Older, plus-sized Fantine is a woman who embraces her curves and revels in her femininity. A weekend of pleasure that begins as a sizzling sexual distraction to both sparks a deeper need that neither was looking for, a connection neither is able to relinquish. Fantine also brings Rolf a gift beyond measure-a link to the dark-eyed, dark-haired father he always suspected was his, not the blond-haired, blue-eyed sire of his brothers. Amid the joy of learning of his new family and a tempestuous relationship burgeoning with steamy sexuality and newfound emotions, a new side to Rolf emerges-the man he never thought he could be, and the lover of Fantine's deepest fantasies. Note: Dance of the Rogue, the final book in the Dance series, brings characters from earlier books back together for a poignant finale. If you loved the other Dance stories, you won't want to miss this one!
