

Legitimacy In European Nature Conservation Policy

DOWNLOAD HERE

PART 1: INTRODUCTION- Chapter 1: European Nature Conservation Policy Making- From Substantive to Procedural Sources of Legitimacy- Ewald Engelen, Jozef Keulartz & Gilbert Leistra - PART 2: COUNTRIES- Chapter 2: Endangered Legitimacy- Nature Policy in Flanders: Messy Participation Strategies - Dirk Bogaert & Pieter Leroy - Chapter 3: Nature Policy in Flanders- Messy Participation or Unfavourable circumstances?- Comments by Erik van Zadelhoff- Chapter 4: Between European Injunction and Local Consultation- Analyzing the Territorialization Process for a Public Nature Conservation Initiative in France- Florence Pinton- Chapter 5: The Local Implementation of Nature Policy- Deliberative Democracy or Interest Politics?- Comments by Henk van den Belt- Chapter 6: Legitimacy of Biodiversity Policies in a Multi-Level Setting - The Case of Germany- Markus Leibenath- Chapter 7: Are Conflicts of Nature Distributive Conflicts?- Comments by Michiel Korthals - PART 3: PROTECTED AREAS- Chapter 8: Creation of a Bottom-up Nature Conservation Policy in Poland- The Case of the West Polesie Biosphere Reserve- Tadeusz J. Chmielewski & Jaroslaw Krogulec - Chapter 9: Nature Conservation in Poland and the Netherlands- Bottom-up or Bottom Line?- Comments by Henny van der Windt- Chapter 10: Legitimacy Problems in Spanish Nature Policy- The case of Donana - Susana Aguilar Fernandez- Chapter 11: How to Deal With Legitimacy in Nature Conservation Policy?- Comments by Jan van Tatenhove- Chapter 12: Resistance to Top-down Conservation Policy and the Search for New Participatory Models- The Case of Berg-Malax Outer Archipelago in Finland- Susanna Bjrkell- Chapter 13: Visions and Scales of Nature and Society in Nature Management - Comments by Jacques Swart- Chapter 14: Conservation in Context: A View from Below- Implementation of Conservation Policies on the North York Moors- Elizabeth Oughton & Jane Wheelock - Chapter 15: Towards governance and procedural sources of legitimacy?- Comments by Marielle van der Zouwen - PART 4: PROTECTED SPECIES- Chapter 16: Wintering Geese in the Netherlands Legitimate Policy?- Gilbert Leistra, Jozef Keulartz & Ewald Engelen- Chapter 17: Vindicating Arrogant Ecologists- Comments by Wim Dubbink- Chapter 18: Legitimacy of Species Management- The Great Cormorant in the EU- Felix Rauschmayer & Vivien Behrens- Chapter 19: Animal Governance- The Cormorant Case- Comments by Hub Zwart -

PART 5: CONCLUSIONS- Chapter 20: European Union Environmental Policy and Natura 2000- From Adoption to Revision- Rdiger Wurzel EAN/ISBN : 9781402065101 Publisher(s): Springer Netherlands
Format: ePub/PDF Author(s): Keulartz, Jozef - Leistra, Gilbert

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals:

Legitimacy In European Nature Conservation Policy