ELECTRONIC: Pop Crossover, URBAN/R&B: R&B Pop Crossover A Place Is Just A Populate Box Songs

Details: The San Diego founded musical effort Brief Daylight is comprised of five members: Electronic music guru Keith Milgaten aka "Seamus" sings out and organizes the noises and rythms that keep the unanimous train moving along, while Jona Tellez-Giron layers melodic guitar into the atmosphere.

Additionally, keyboard-messiah Velvet Elvis a.k.a Doc Davidson a.a.k.a Lucritive Compromise fulfills your unquenchable need for synthesis in a manner most divine, while Jackson Milgaten proves why he deserves the vocal chords that reside within the chambers of his far upper-torso. The quintet is completed by the luscious bass grooves provided by the one and only Jeremy Scott a.k.a. Mr. Minneapolis, as he steps out of the folk-realm to initiate massive amounts of low end comfort. With their powers combined, Brief Daylight will hit you with a little thing called love.
