Details: Brian Bunnell, in spite of his young age is a good ole boy in every sense of the word. He comes from a small town in Pennsylvania where hes been playing honky-tonks and larger venues with true country bands for many years. Whether its a small club in Maryland that holds 100 people or the Pocono 500 which attracts nearly 90.000 NASCAR fans, Brian has entertained them all with the same enthusiasm every time. This performer is the real deal with a personality of a kick-stomping, heart-pounding, no-holds-barred attitude. His ability to draw crowds in six different states and keep them well past closing time demonstrates his love and dedication for the music and his fans. Brian has had the opportunity and privilege to work with some of the finest A players in Nashville to put his debut album together. Many of these musicians are members of The Dance Hall Doctors. Recently he has started session work with Travis Tritts band and other studios to do demo work. Brian co-wrote his entire album with Karl Gambler and David Spak who is also the producer of his album. David has worked with some of the finest names in country music including Tanya Tucker and Blake Shelton. Since moving to Nashville Brian has set his sights on procuring a record deal and seeking management. He has assembled his own band to start playing the local hot spots and eventually touring. This is one performer who doesnt forget the people who have helped him along the way with his career. Brian is talented, down to earth, committed to excellence, and confident in his dream to be successful.
