WORLD: Celtic, FOLK: Traditional Folk Details: Carnival of Souls has been performing traditional Celtic music for over 15 years. Their first album, "No Scone Unburned" was acclaimed by the international music magazine "Dirty Linen", and is in the Irish music archives in Dublin. They excel at exploring the ties between traditional American folk music and celtic music. The rich haunting vocals of Jody Abbott and her sister Kelly Lowry combined with rousing instrumentals make a delicious combination for any celtic music fan.
