Amazing Grace, Waltzing Matilda, Danny Boy and Carolina Autumn - that's the glorious music of Hendersonville the Great Smoky Mountains of western North Carolina, featuring mostly acoustic guitar in this unique 10 song collection. 10 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Nostalgia, FOLK: Gentle Details: GREAT FOOD, GREAT MUSIC and... THE GREAT SMOKY MOUNTAINS OF NORTH CAROLINA, WHAT COULD BE FINER? LATE OCTOBER A romantic cracklin' fireplace in a quaint cosy log cabin by one of North Carolina's natural Mountain streams sets the scene... Inside, a festive candlelit table set with steamed lemon/butter rainbow trout, homemade potato salad, fresh oven baked cornbread made-from-scratch Sweet Potato pie coffee... a beautiful guitar version of Amazing Grace plays softly in the background as snowflakes flurry in the distance across the splendor of the Great Smoky Mountains...this is the lifestyle simplicity of Hendersonville North Carolina, where both the people and music create a unique world you'd really have to live in to fully appreciate! Our Great Smoky guitar song collection introduces a first-hand taste of Carolina-style Gospel, folk, blues ballads the locals here have enjoyed for years. From the old songs like AMAZING GRACE, AURA LEE, DANNY BOY WALTZING MATILDA to our own acoustic guitar classic, ROSEWOOD ARPEGGIOS (noted as one of the most beautiful acoustic guitar songs), some of the newest, best and most rare of acoustic guitar songs ever recorded are all here! The ever-popular CAROLINA AUTUMN (with vocals) is also included in this unique collection. Distinctly simple, intimately descriptive, CAROLINA AUTUMN paints a spectacular portrait of The famous Carolina Smoky Mountain's fall foliage in both music lyrics with precise detail. No wonder people from all over the world visit here so often... and unlike some places, the Carolina locals are actually among the most friendly folks to be found anywhere. After all, the art of 'making you feel right at home' is a Carolina trademark! AUTUMN IN HISTORIC HENDERSONVILLE! The fact is, Historic Hendersonville, about 20 miles from Asheville, North Carolina is the place to be at the peak of Fall foliage (third week of October) a truly spectacular scene to behold indeed. The famous Smoky Mountain roads wind up through around the scenic Blue Ridge Parkway. Hills are alive with a cool blast of crisp October air filling the sky with flaming gold, amber and cherry red leaves drifting across the backdrop of a glorious rolling mountain landscape. There's also a generous helping of warm welcoming smiles from locals with their roadside produce, the scent of fresh-picked Carolina green apples and the occasional aroma of a hearty homemade pumpkin pie in a nearby window sill...makes you never to want to leave, right? (actually some don't) HENDERSONVILLE BLUES? The only thing that might have you blue about Hendersonville is leaving! We, however, couldn't resist writing an upbeat guitar blues instrumental in honor of the Great Smoky Mountain town we love so much! WAFFLE HOUSE COFFEE KRISPY KREEME DONUTS The well-known J&S CAFE just off I-40, (Airport exit 9) has the best homemade food around! But save some room for a cup of Waffle House coffee a box of piping hot, right-off-the-belt, Krispy Kreeme donuts... (a major priority) perfect to munch on while Smoky Mountain sight-seeing. Is it October yet? Ya'll Come! (TIP: Bring your best warm jacket, you'll need it, we promise) CAROLINA BOURNE __ MUSIC CAROLINA BOURNE is a member of MUSIC, an independent union of unsigned musicians, songwriters and artists making a difference in rare and high quality music productions worldwide.
