Daniel performed on piano, Rhodes, or organ on each track and directed the action on stage to give each of six different musical configurations a chance to wow the crowd. This is Daniel at age 20 while still attending VCU's acclaimed School of Jazz. Take a trip back to June 2000 and give a listen to Daniel and his musical cohorts. This show ended with the audience literally dancing in the aisles an up onto the stage. Bill McElroy, Soundsmith, owner of Richmond's Slipped Disc, came away from the remote recording session with about four hours of music. Danny edited it down to CD size. After a couple of mixing sessions, what you hold in your hands emerged. Yes, all except "Mullets" are covers, but I'm sure you will agree they're all stamped with Danny C's inspirational interpretation and delivery, which makes each cut special and this a truly unique CD.
