Details: Fingerpistol, an Americana band from Austin, Texas, was formed in 1999 and released a 12-song CD, "Big, Wet, Sloppy World," in January 2000. It has received airplay on stations in America and Europe, including KDVS 90.3 FM at the University of California at Davis, the Arctic Cactus Hour on KNBA Radio in Alaska, JRRR Radio in Ireland, and Radio ISA in France. From the opening chords of radio hungry Goodbye Marie through its wistful, last chance lyrics, it's the vocal harmony interplay of Fingerpistol that stands out at first. Live on stage, the dynamic presence and vocal confidence of Dan Hardick and Suzee Brooks locks it all together. Blending Texas Country and Southern Rock, their latest CD Young And Beautiful presents the same raw snap-shot visual writing seen among the Texas songwriting elite. Supported by Austin A-Listers Cindy Cashdollar and Landis Armstrong and skilled rythm-regulars Jill Csekitz and Sam Wilson, this is another excellent recording from Kevin Szymanski at Bruce Robison's Premium Studios. Watch out Fingerpistol is ready to go off. Reviews I have been thoroughly enjoying your record Young and Beautiful . . . deep rich Marshall Tucker Band, Amazing Rhythm Aces in all the BEST ways. Your voice is great and harmonies with Suzee blend perfectly. Love your guitar and the organ/piano. The overall production is radio-ready, as good as I've heard. Of course Jerry Tubb and Terra Nova are the best! My favorite songs are Goodbye, Marie, Young and Beautiful, Still in Texas, Sadness and Pain and I dig the vox-fx on Get Back Up. Little Bit of Faith is just plain sweet! A solid record. It was great to catch yall live as well. Mean it! Bryan Beck, DJ KGSR In The Morning, 107.1 KGSR FM Radio "As much fun as the law will allow ..
