

Mp3 Keith Thompson - A King's Christmas

DOWNLOAD HERE

Keith Thompson plays his brilliant improvisations of familiar Christmas carols and the classic music of JS Bach, Marcel Dupre and Henri Mulet. Now on iTunes and MusicMatch. 18 MP3 Songs CLASSICAL: Traditional Details: Keith Thompson began playing the piano at the age of four and the organ at the age of seven. He played his first public concert at the age of 11 to an audience of 1500. He has placed in several American and European organ competitions, including being one of the top four finalists in the most prestigious International Concours d'Orgue, Grand Prix de Chartes. In 1994 and 1996, Keith performed for the gala opening and during the Christmas season at the White House, playing the Bess Truman Steinway, a piano which rests on the backs of three gold leaf American eagles. Keith has recently returned to northern California and may be heard regularly on the magnificent Skinner Symphonic Organ at the California Palace of the Legion of Honor. Keith received glowing comments after his playing for services and in concert at Grace Cathedral, San Francisco in 2004. Check out echoesofheavenfor reviews. A King's Christmas is also available for economical digital download by track or album from Apple iTunes, MusicMatch.com, MSN music, and virgindigital.com. Enjoy the personal digital music age with A King's Christmas for your iPod or mp3 player. Check out echoesofheavenfor updated sources and links where available.

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: