Beautiful Tragedy is about letting go and is a strong second album from 24 year-old Matthew Kimball who plays the piano with passion and sings with soul. 10 MP3 Songs POP: Piano, EASY LISTENING: Love Songs Details: Music should be meaningful. There is a lot of good, new music out there, but meaning is being replaced by novelty. I grew up listening to Elton John, James Taylor, Paul Simon, Billy Joel, Stevie Wonder and the like. To me, the words they sung were as important as the notes they played, and the notes they played werent forced, faked, or pounded out in never-ending fortissimo. It wasnt art for arts sake; it was a beautiful expression of what it is to be living. And although you could dance to the music, thats not all that you could do. I am Matthew Kimball, and I believe in writing meaningful music. I dont have a Mohawk, I dont drive a Bentley, I dont have tattoos, I dont pretend like Im from the ghetto, and I definitely dont smash instruments to compensate for mediocre musical ability. Im just a simple musician who writes songs to express his experiences: his pain, his joy, his loneliness, his excitement, his silliness, his seriousness, his fear, and his triumph. When I was two, I hobbled over to the piano, climbed up onto the bench, and began mashing sound out of the magical, mahogany toy. Thus began my love affair with music. Weve been together now for more than two decades, but she is still just as beautiful and intriguing to me as when we first met. The songs in my albums are musical manifestations of some of my experiences over those twenty plus years. As a result, they dont all sound the same. Music isnt one-dimensional, why should musicians be? Im not some Hollywood rhinestone, manufactured out of worthless glass, sounding the same song after song. I dont care about marketing; I care about music. There are limits to what one person can do, but music should be as dynamic as the emotions that are behind it. I may not be the maestro of every genre, and there are some genres Id just as soon forget about, but Im certainly no cookie-cutter, pigeonholed stooge. When the dust settles, Im only just a young man who likes to sing and play the piano. If thats enough for you, I hope you find something meaningful in my music.
