GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, SPOKEN WORD: With Music Details: Formal members Of "Body Of Baptized Believers (BOBB)" "Oneil" and "Lady PattiB" a brother and sister team has now formed "Pieces Of Christ" a singing duo serving the Lord. Lady PattiB, a sultry first soprano, who embodies classic rhythm and blues and has a versatile range in vocals. A native of Los Angeles, California - PattiB began singing at the age of five in church choirs and later performing on stage with local glee clubs. In high school she received numerous awards and performed with "The Madrigals". Following high school, PattiB continued to expand her musical talents by participating in Walden Productions' play, "Gun Joke," at the Wilshire Ebell Theater, and performing at the Sportsman's Lodge, in Studio City, as-well-as numerous other concerts and showcases in the Los Angeles area. She also spent four years performing as a lead vocalist with "Live Wire (An R&B Group)" at numerous military bases in the United Kingdom (Great Britain). PattiB also produced and performed in a showcase production (A Motown Review) in Cambridge England. Additional performances include a number of showcases with Wall Street (a jazz and gospel group) and from their BOBB where she allowed the anointing of the Lord to shine through. Oneil, a smooth first tenor, cool and sensual. A native of Los Angeles, California, Oneil started his entertainment career originally as a Rapper. He too has a unique ability to write (off-the-cuff) with seemingly every song written -a potential hit. Oneil has won several Rapp contests, participated in various showcases and has even had the opportunity to write for some well-known artist. Now focusing on Gospel, Oneil has made a spiritual change in his focus on music and the Lord is continually blessing him and enhancing his gifts. Also, the Assistant Pastor of Greater Emmanuel Community Christian Church. Both have dedicated their life's journey to serving God, doing a work in His will to increase His kingdom
