Dark electronic rock/pop with a dash of hope. 12 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Pop Crossover, ELECTRONIC: Breakbeat/Breaks Details: Following up his 2005 hit "Pixel Vision" with pop songs in the style of an imaginary video game, Ray Hargreaves presents something on his darker side. More than a year and a half in the making, "Jessica and the Silver Eclipse" hits hard with its cutting synth leads and huge bass lines. With cryptic and layered vocals floating over the top of heavy electronic rock, Ray is hoping you enjoy it as much as he has working on it.
