Sincere songwriting. "Musical Prozak" for those of you trying to figure out life. 9 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Soft Rock, POP: Piano Details: Fisher has made a name for herself as a one-woman synth band at coffee shops and open stages by using a portable sequencer to provide her rhythm tracks while she sings and plays keyboards. As a songwriter, Fisher strives to write about self-betterment and spirituality. Fisher mixes many pop music styles. She's a big fan of Gladys Knight and Mavis Staples. She also grew up on pop singer-songwriters Carole King and Rickie Lee Jones. She aims eventually to create a new kind of singer-songwriter soul music, a la Des'ree. But Fisher admits that until now her music has been quite pop oriented, perhaps because of her computerized music-making systems. Fisher is an intriguing talent, with a bright future in soft rock, New Age pop or uplifting R&B. Her fortitude, realism and positive outlook are all admirable.
