November 18, 2006 SAN JOSE, Calif., November 18, 2006 -- Music has always been an integral part in celebrating Christmas, initially resounding with the celestial choir of angels proclaiming the arrival of the Creator of the Universe. But through the years past, the authenticity of true Christmas celebration has begun to deteriorate. This Holiday season, the musical production company "The Phantom," directed by Daniel Gutierrez Jr., presents the release entitled "Naci | The Christmas Album" offered to the national and international markets. A true musical project infused with an unadulterated Christmas message, this bilingual compilation of original musical inspirations narrates the detailed account of Christ's birth and His purpose. Daniel Gutierrez Jr. (Christian Tabernacle Choir/ Jontez), who organized and produced this musical project, embraced this vision and took on the task of reuniting a select group of intimate and talented friends. Among them you'll find Tinu Diaz, renowned composer and singer, Liliana Cruz and Joseph Espinoza; both acclaimed soloists who have been nominated for the Dove Award as participants in the musical project "ADORAR". Utilizing a wide range of musical expressions, from gospel-pop to traditional Latin folk music, "Naci | The Christmas Album" offers the world a refreshing message that encourages the soul and reignites in all the true spirit of Christmas.
