Fever By Kimberly Dean Relentless heat. Uncontrolled desire. And a man to slake her every need. Delia Jenkins is distressed when a raging fever forces her to leave work on the day before a big bid. She's brand new on the job, but her delirium has pushed her to the point where she can't think straight. She goes home to recuperate, but the heat inside her only builds. That night, a man shows up at her apartment to care for her. He's concerned about her well-being, but the fervor has reached a ravenous pitch. There's only one way to douse the flames. It's only after the fever breaks that Delia realizes her work situation has gotten hotter than ever before.
