Are you fed up with all the junk email you get?, want to reduce the ever increasing tide of spam? Now you can, email scramble hides your email address so email harvesting robots can't find it in your page. The email address can still be read by people visiting your site and works exactly the same way when someone clicks on your email link. Quickly scramble your email address and code it into your web pages. No HTML coding! Just click 'Generate Code' and email scramble does the rest for you. No software to install - just download and run. Email scramble automatically scrambles your email address no HTML coding needed. With Email scramble you can instantly add a scrambled email link to your web pages. Stop email harvesting in its tracks and help cut down the amount of spam you receive Code as many email addresses as you like. Tags: online, web
