She uses her voice and multi instruments to bring these forgotten songs to the modern ear. She seeks to speak for those who are not heard and those who have been silenced. "Journeys of the Wolf springs forth from Christines great love of all her creature teachers, especially the Wolf. On a Vision Quest she became acquainted with two wolves, and began hearing their stories. She listened, translated, then created a vessel for music, to bring them forth. Musicians John Swana, Chico Huff, Joe Mullen and storyteller John Canan also heard the howl of the wolves. Together they translated these visions into the Musical Journey you will hear. The hearts and hands of Anne Park, Ian Campbell, Matt Balitsaris, Michael McDonald, Connie Paolino, Kathleen Cahill, Barb Alesi, The Secret Path, Seven Stones Store and Wolf Song Drum Circles insured these songs made into CD form. Journeys of the Wolf is a contemporary offering of an age-old tradition story telling. Journeys incorporates the tools of the tribal storyteller; drumming, singing, and narration coupled with soaring progressive music. The story moves between worlds; that of the She-Wolf, and the woman holding the vision. Journeys is a touching interweaving of lifes lessons thru the eyes of all these beings. It is the story of a She Wolf her birth, her childhood, her love, and her life. In ancient story telling there was the story being told along with an invisible teaching imparted in the telling. The listener will soon realize that the worlds of Wolf, Woman, Musicians and Storyteller are woven together in a very fine tapestry. Journeys invites the audience to move beyond listener observer, into being an engaged participant in the ceremony of life. The swirling beauty of the music coupled with compelling drumming, vibrant visual and the sometimes-stark narrative all speak to our collective souls search for meaning. It reminds us that; All have place and purpose here on Earth and that We are all indeed One. It takes a Community to grow a Vision! The Wolves howl their gratitude for all who bring their songs to Light! Aho!
