Melodic pop rock with a folk/rock edge. 11 MP3 Songs POP: Folkly Pop, ROCK: Acoustic Details: Colette was born and raised in Cleveland, Ohio. As a Beatles fan since infancy, she became facinated with musical instruments (mainly guitars) as a child. As a singer/songwriter, Colette has written over one hundred songs and has released two CDs. Her first CD, "SOMETIMES PATIENCE", is a solo acoustic CD. "TASTE THIS", her second release, has a full band production on most of the tracks. It was produced by Dan Hayes and Mark Malysa. Besides The Beatles, Colette's musical influences include Fleetwood Mac, Sheryl Crow, Bonnie Raitt, Linda Ronstadt, Carole King and The Pretenders, among others. As a performer, Colette has opened shows for Roger McGuinn, Moxie Fervous, and has played the side stage at Blossom Music Center in Ohio, before Lyle Lovett and K.D. Lang. In August of 2002 she won the "We Hope We Passed the Audition" contest at the Beatles festival, "Abbey Road on the River" at Nautica Stage in Cleveland, by performing her soulful version of "Dear Prudence". Besides winning a trip to England, she had the honor of meeting George Harrison's sister, Louise Harrison after the show. Colette is currently finishing her third CD in collaboration with friend and producer, Larry Galletta. For more information on Colette, check out colettesongs.com
