Caribbean Gospel (Gospelypso) with compelling female vocals. 10 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, WORLD: Island Details: Born and raised in the parish of St. David's, Grenada, Gospel Music Minister Janice Charles, Grenada's Former Female Calypso Monarch, converted on New Years Eve 1999-2000 now sings Gospelypso. A testimony of God's saving power. Ministering at Gospel Concerts along with Gospel artistes such as George Banton from Jamaica, Eslyn Orr and Sherwin Gardener from Trinidad Tobago Janice has proven herself by far to be Grenada's most versatile and innovative Gospel Artiste. Her compelling, melodious vocals and captivative style, stirs, encourages and lifts your spirit as she ministers in Calypso, Caribbean Contemporary and Reggae. On February 8th, 2004 She received the DeeVee International Productions Calypso/Soca Award for Grenada's Best Female Artiste from 1974 to 2004 at an Award Ceremony held in Brooklyn New York in celebration of Grenada's 30th Anniversary of Independence. On May 8th 2004 she was awarded Best New Female Caribbean Gospel Artiste at the Gil Pat Bailey 4th Annual Caribbean Gospel Awards, held in Brooklyn New York. Her album 'Take It Back' truly depicts the Caribbean flavour and you do not have to be a Christian to enjoy the blessings that comes with listening and worshipping with her music. This ten track album is laced with powerful lyrical messages, skillfully written on beats that invites you to dance. As she sings the different Caribbean Melodies, she knows how to lead her audience into a deep spiritual place of worship. 'Take It Back' motivates and gives you the authority to worship, praise, dance, be encouraged and empowered in Jesus Christ as you strengthen your relationship with God. Since the Launch of her 1st gospel Album in June 2003 at the Tanteen Recreation Ground, Grenada, she has been travelling through Trinidad Tobago, Canada and different parts of the US, Ministering at Churches and Gospel Concerts and has been well received with great commendations. She is deeply committed to full time service to God through her

Music Ministry and believes that the most rewarding accomplishment is to seek, know, follow and fulfill God's purpose for your life no matter who, what or where you are.
