Easy to listen to fun and educational music for young children. National Parenting Center Seal of Approval. 29 MP3 Songs KIDS/FAMILY: General Children's Music, KIDS/FAMILY: Children's Pop Details: Judy Caplan Ginsburgh is a multi-award winning singer who specializes in music for families. She has spent many years as a music specialist in the early childhood classroom and is a much sought after keynote speaker and teacher at national and regional Early Childhood conferences. Judy's music for children is participatory, educational and fun. It is the type of music that has numerous practical applications in a classroom. Judy also has the type of voice that kids (and their parents) can listen to over and over again. This is a great car CD. Judy performs over 100 concerts a year throughout North America. She is an expert at involving children with her on-stage. She teaches classes on discipline through music and her techniques are apparent when she performs as she has the audience right in the palm of her hand. Songs are active and fun, but every concert ends with a soft, calming lullaby. Judy was named the 1999 Louisiana Professional Artist of the Year and in 1990 was honored with a special Music Award from the Religious Heritage of America Foundation. Her recordings have won high praises and have received a National Parenting Center Seal of Approval, 2 Parents Choice Silver Honors, and a Parents Choice Seal of Approval. Her CD "Amazing Songs For Amazing Jewish Kids" was recently nominated for a Just Plain Folks Music Award. Whether you are a teacher, a parent, or best of all, a kid --- you will LOVE this long-playing CD which contains 29 songs for kids of all ages.
