Details: Biography Kristen Clark Living in rural Ontario, traveling to many music venues in Canada and more recently the United States, Kristen Clarks sights are set on one day becoming a major country music entertainer. She began performing when she was just 4 years old, step-dancing and singing at jamborees, benefits, fairs and many private functions. From 2004 through 2006 Kristens bookings were constant, attending radio interviews, benefits, competitions and performances throughout Ontario. In 2007, she was invited to Music City USANashville, during CMA Fest, where she performed at the Music City Bar and Grill, Lonnie's Western Room and in a songwriters circle that was broadcast worldwide on NixCountry radio. Early 2008 she was invited back to Nashville during CMA Fest to perform on three stages including the Fuel, and to do a Meet and Greet down at Riverfront Stages. Kristen enjoys writing her own material using her guitars, home recording studio and vocal abilities. She has begun experimenting with vocal harmonies and guitar picking and strives to evoke strong emotions in her lyrics. She has worked diligently with her vocal trainer Tara Lyn Hart (Sony), and her guitar teacher to further enhance her abilities. Music has a huge impact on Kristens life and she thoroughly enjoys sharing it with her audiences, big or small. She hopes to one day be the star that everyone dreams of being, through hard work and dedication. Kristen has recorded several CDs, her first entitled New Beginnings was a compilation of cover tunes from three different genres. With that completed, she concentrated on writing meaningful songs that really meant something to her, thus embarking on co-writing several songs with her parents, three of which were recorded on her first original 3-song CD called Kisses To You. She was quite excited to walk into Music World at the local mall and see her CD on the New Releases shelf. The following November she also contributed to a compilation Christmas CD for the United Way. As if that wasn't enough, Kristen pressed on and wanted to deliver to her fans what they had been asking her for a CD full of country classics. By June 2006 she delivered her 3rd CD to her fans entitled Grand Ole Classics, a 10-song CD full of country classics. During her music career, Kristen has had numerous opportunities to perform as a solo musician as well as with many country bands.
