Originally from the Mississippi Gulf Coast, Marianne initially pursued a career as Certified Public Accountant, but her passion has always been music and the creation of lyrics that reflect life. Following Hurricane Katrina, Marianne realized that having survived the storm she had been given a unique opportunity to pursue her life's dream. Hurricane Katrina devastated so many lives, including that of my own family. As we recovered from the devastation, I was struck by the fragility of life and the realization that so many of us never follow our dreams. I had an extensive portfolio of songs that I had written over the years and decided that it was time for me to go into the studio and start recording. Receiving this level of recognition for my original works is both humbling and truly gratifying. Her first CD From the Water was released in January 2007. Recorded at Doc Rock Recording in Latimer, MS, it is co-produced by Kenneth Leonard. It is also available online. She performs her original music live at the IP Casino Resort Spa in Biloxi. Mariannes music is a blend of many styles such as acoustic, pop and folk music that brings all walks of life together in unity. Her lyrics draw you in and her undeniably catchy melodies keep you there. Her songwriting talent is evident in "Blink of an Eye", the first song on her CD, which offers a catchy hook and playful vocals. "This World" combines a soothing sound and beautiful vocals with a mandolin in the background played by nationally known Denny Sitze. "Caught up in You" shows off her talent not only for writing melodies, but also lyrics. "The Girl in the Tree" is yet another catchy song with a great hook. "I feel music is an art that everyone connects with on some level and at some point in their lives." People who are interested in Sheryl Crow Colbie Caillat should consider this download.
