Undeniable groove and killer hooks make this a potent mix of funk, soul, and rock n roll 6 MP3 Songs

ROCK: Funk Rock, URBAN/R&B: Funk Details: Undeniable groove and killer hooks make this a potent mix of energetic funk, soul, and rock and roll, with a dose of reggae and Latin flavors. The Mother Freedom sound balances tight vocal harmonies, dirty guitar and organ, funky horn lines, and a big fat bottom end. The New York based five piece band has opened for such artists as Bernie Worrell (P-Funk, Talking Heads), Leo Nocentelli (The Meters), Oteil Burbridge (Allman Brothers), Felicia Collins (David Letterman Show), Gregory Isaacs, and Wolfman Washington, and played at the 1999 Vans Warped Tour. Mother Freedom won the New York Ernie Ball Battle of the Bands in 1999, and were semi-finalists in the 2000 Sennheiser Evolution Band Contest and the 2001 Long Island Music Festival. Mother Freedom's latest CD, This Is Mother Freedom, was recorded and mixed at Cove City Sound Studios in Glen Cove, NY. The CD has been featured on WBAB 102.3 FM and WLIR 92.7 FM New York, WONY in Oneonta, NY and WVOF 88.5 FM Fairfield, CT. Here is what some are saying about Mother Freedom: "Musically, this band is right on the money with tight musicianship and a sharp delivery that can make a person with two left feet get up and dance like James Brown...this band has something for everyone and really knows how to get down with tight, gritty funk that gets the senses rattling." -Good Times Magazine "An awesome band...the vibes alone were enough to make people get up and dance...they know how to please a crowd." -The Inside Connection For more information, visit the Mother Freedom website at: motherfreedom.com
