Dark country meets stripped down folk. Instrumentation including banjo, cello, piano, guitar and intense harmonies inspiring the listener with bright resolve. 8 MP3 Songs FOLK: Alternative Folk, COUNTRY: Alt-Country Details: "George's SHop" of 2003 is the 7th official release of Natalie Farr since her debut in 1990. Farr is native of Georgia, USA and though she currently lives in New MEXico, her loyalty and intrigue with Gothic Southern culture permeates "George's Shop" like never before in her work. The dark country folk music of "George's Shop" reaches deeper into the unique sound and production style of Natalie Farr's recordings. Each song on "George's Shop" is a vingette. As the instrumentation resonates cello, guitar, banjo, piano and intense harmonies, the listener moves into bright resolve. The songs are melodic and beautiful yet haunting, a trademark of Natalie Farr's production. Thank you for your participation in the music as a listener! We are grateful for your interest and support.
