He coins his style of music, just plain Soul. This brother is indubitably a true seasoned musician who has garnered a reputation for writing and producing warm, heart-felt, and infectious songs that engage the heart. His humble yet aggressive spirit, along with his prolific musical talents has afforded him with many opportunities to fall comfortably into the music industry. Comeing out a city that is known for it's Jazz, and now rap music, Rahjwanti has found his nitch with his soul music. "People are looking for something different in NewOrleans, a fresh new look on music. I'm not doing anything new, I just offer a fresh look." It is no wonder some of his inspirations are, Stevie Wonder, John Lennon, Jeffrey Osborne, Donnie Hatheway, The Bettles, Luther Vandross, George Benson, and so many other soul singer of the past and present. " I have such of love for good writing, I once studied all os Stevie Wonders lyrics to learn how he used words to describe how he felt or or how to set the mood without going to deep over the average listeners head." " Soul music to me is whatever touches the heart, I have never been drawn to one style of music, It's always been about great songwriters." Rahjwanti has the necessary ingredients it takes to break new ground; to be a trailblazer! Without so much as a second thought, he will raise the bar in the industry! If one had to use one word to describe him, it would be FREE, beacuse he does not worry about much. In his own words, Rahjwanti sums it up, "GOD has blessed me with great talent, I work hard at what I do, and he will bless the rest!!!!
