The album gives you a brief feel of some of the things that are in my heart a This is an album geared toward fans that enjoy and love the art of lyricism. The album gives you a brief feel of some of the things that are in my heart and is broken in to four sections. Section one of the album(Tracks 1-4) kind of gives you a description of who I am spiritually, lyrically, and emotionally. Tracks five through eight, the second section of the album, show the spiritual and prophetic side of me. What God has spoken to me and how some of the prophecies has come to pass and other that have not as of yet. It was from these songs that the album was titled: THE PROPHET SEES. This section of the album also shows a little of my political side and encourages the poor and the oppressed to stand strong and continue to fight. Section three of the album, (tracks 9-12), is totally what Reece is a lyricist and a fun loving peaceful type of guy. I have recieved criticism from Christians for this section of the album but, I see music as a gift that is sacred and it should be shared in all trueness from your heart. Whenever some one says that you should make a certain type of music and that's it what they are saying is for you not to be free. They are saying to you that you can't be human. It doesn't matter if you are black, white, Christian, or Muslim we are all human and have different emotions at different times. So music is a channel to show how we as humans feel in these different situations. Lyrical Fitness, track 10, shows the lyrical side of Reece full throttle to the max. Cruisin', track 11, shows the loose chill side of me. If you listen to the words and how descriptive they are you will see that you will lose yourself in this song. Summertime, track 12, is a favorite track in this area and has recieved a lot of air play on the local radio stations here in this city. It could really be big across the world with the right push. Section four of the album, (tracks 13-16), is a recap of the entire album so to speak. Each one of the tracks show each side of me shown through out the album. Track 14 is special to me for two reasons. First because I collaborated with my good friend Corey " The Quiet Storm" Jones who I started my career with. Second because of what takes place in the song let me explain. The name of the song is called Transformation. In this song we transform in to what we call our unique styles of hip hop. His style is like a quiet storm and so in his verse he transforms in to this and becomes a supernatural disaster when he rhymes. I call my style The Style Of The Cheetah so in my verse I transformate into a lyrical cheetah. I think that this track will be a favorite for you as well. Track 16 I'm sure will cause great a deal of controversy. Before you listen to track 16 listen to track 15 this will clear things up a bit. Also at the end of track 16 is another interview and will better clarify what I am saying. By no means do I feel bad or sorry for how the message was brought across because I feel it needed to be said. Well, there you have it. I trust that if you do decide to purchase my album you will enjoy it. I trust that you will see that I am a man of truth and love and I just wanna share that with the world!
