All of this taking place after the family realized that the girl could actually hold a tune and never mind the fact she would never shut up!!! Ha Ha! From that day forward music became her passion, she formed a group called Tre which consisted of five girls. They would dance,sing,stomp,rap and enter talent shows and community events around town. As they grew older each developed their own interests and Lashonda, through thick and thin held tight to her love of music.It wasn't until later on that she devloped and crafted a distinctive and unique style of rap in which is truly a treat. To her delight Sintree received various requests for her to perform and encouragement from her family and friends that lead her to where she is today! Etched from a lifetime of experience, hopes and aspirations, she wishes to inspire others to pursue their dreams and to stay focused no matter what obstacles may come and TO BE TRUE TO SELF IF NO ONE ELSE!Sintree plans to continue to record and promote her album.
