

Mp3 Suki Rae - My Bamboo Hat

DOWNLOAD HERE

Comedy/novelty/show tunes for children 8 MP3 Songs KIDS/FAMILY: Kid Friendly, POP: Quirky Details: A native Chicagoan, flutist/singer/songwriter Suki Rae has been playing music since the age of five. A classically trained flutist, she has an MA in Music/Film and has been performing internationally for the last 20 years. Awards include: only American finalist in the Hoeillart Jazz Festival in Belgium; Honorary Award in Great American Song Festival; Runner up Song of the Year Award, Viewer's Choice Award at Kweevak.com; ASCAP Awards since 1994; American Song Festival; Nashville Song Festival and nominations for the Just Plain Folks Awards and the NAR Best Song Awards. Performances include: Universal Jazz Coalition's Women in Jazz Festival; MUNY's Texaco Bell Atlantic Jazz Festival; Michigan Womens' Music Festival; Jerusalem Womens' Music Festival; St. Peter's Church; Makor; etc. She has been a musician in residence at Cornell University; at the Arad Arts Project in Arad, Israel; at the Wurlitzer Foundation in Taos, New Mexico; at the Hilai Arts Colony in Israel; and at the Fundacion Valparaiso in Mojacar, Spain, and Rocky Mountain National Park in Colorado. She has written songs in many different genres and recently had one of her children's songs published in "The Music Box and Other Delights." She has also acted, directed, and written for Theatre and Film and appeared on Radio and TV. Her five recordings, all self-produced on Reverence for Life Records are all of original songs except Cantique de Noel (Christmas songs). Her recordings include: Water and Fire; Pipedreams; Cantique de Noel and recently released I Think of You; and My Bamboo Hat.

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: