electronic, trip house, experimental, hip hop, house, techno 10 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Trip Hop, ELECTRONIC: Experimental Details: Communication, IMT's second full length CD project, picks up where The Devil Made Me Buy This Dress left off, and moves in some daring new directions. The production is fuller on this compilation of songs and the range of music and samples is impressive - ranging from funk, trip house, spoken word, hip-hop, and solid pop. Producer and vocalist Junito Perez is your tour guide through these tracks: sometimes devilish, often hilarious, and always sexy, his vocal interpretations make Communication a joyous, even occasionally moving experience. Standout tracks include the title cut, the ultra-shady Don't Want to Hear Your Pain, and Mexico vs. Puerto Rico, a mournful song of love loss and regret. I Feel Fierce is the CD's irresistible, hysterical "hi-nrg" highlight, and Papi Jaculator and an updated remix of Don't Want 2 B Alone make the dance side of this CD complete. (Max Gordon)
