Not many bands can pull off this mix in styles. Because of the multi-talents of the members of the band, and their collective experiences playing the musical styles represented on this project, these guys rock! The band is primarily a core trio: Scott Carter - Guitars Lead Background Vocals Mike Bedard - Drums Background Vocals Mark Fowler - Bass Background Vocals There were other musicians added for other textures in the recording process (sax some percussion). But, don't be fooled. The trio performs in the studio and in live situations with energy and a "phatt-ness" that amazes their audiences. Their sound is BIG! Based out of San Diego California, (now relocated to Orange County, CA) the band has performed locally in venues developing their live performance persona as well as building the fan-base between San Diego and Los Angeles. The southern California market has been a great barometer to breakout their original songs. Thus far, the crowds are favoarble. The music represented on this CD is performed at their live shows and the fans are so into the music that many of the tunes are being sung by the audience as well! The music is well written, the songs are produced well and the lyrics are catchy to listen to. Most of all, the energy of the band is heavy and fun.
