A healthy balance of high energy power pop, hauntingly good melodies, and an infectious live show is just part of what keeps these guys at the top of many all-time greatest pop band lists. 13 MP3 Songs ROCK: Modern Rock, POP: Beatles-pop Details: A healthy balance of high energy pop, hauntingly good melodies, and an infectious live show is just part of what keeps The Nines at the top of many all-time greatest pop band lists. In 1998, The Nines released their critically praised Wonderworld of Colourful which topped the University Charts in Canada. The album introduced the splendid pop song craftsmanship of singer/songwriter Steve Eggers. Being named North by North East's "Best unsigned Act" in 1998, allowed Canada's pop darlings the chance to release a second cleverly penned and supremely performed 4-song CD released on Universal. Eggers' songs have appeared on several hit Television shows, including Dawson's Creek and Party of Five. The Nines have recently released their second full length album, Properties of Sound, and immediately topped Canadian University Charts with the song, Melanie. The Nines have returned from a successful showcase in Hollywood, opening for Jason Falkner. Steve Eggers is currently writing with a number of artists including XTC's, Andy Partridge. The Nines are now working on their next album which will be mixed by Jason Falkner (Air, The Grays, Jellyfish, Paul McCartney). "Steve Eggers writes from a self-contained world where the three-minute pop song can appear and reappear with staggering ease"- Shake it Up "Steve Eggers is a genius...the best disc of the year, hands down." Amplifier "the Nines offer the brilliant Jennifer Smiles" - Chart Magazine "Steve Eggers and his band continue to churn out fine pop songs." San Francisco Guardian "Wonderworld of Colourful balances such gorgeously baroque ballads as Ghost Town Sunday with snappy, harmonized rockers... one big cotton candy ball-o-sound" Eye Magazine
