IS HE THE ONLY SANE PERSON IN TOWN? Corporate shark Joe Iskerson wastes no time in getting exactly what he wants. And what he wants is to spend one brief night in Saunders, Idaho, close a major land deal, and get out. But no one told him Saunders is home to a bunch of kooky eccentrics who don't seem to grasp the concept of money, or that his B&B is a former brothel that now houses retired ladies of the evening. Then there's the proprietor of the B&B, Emylou Gainor. Pretty, warm, and apparently not deranged, she's the sort of homemaking, small-town girl Joe would never be attracted to under normal circumstances. But nothing in Saunders is normal. That must be why he's going wildly, passionately out of his mind for Emylou. The only way to stay sane is to get out of town, before he gives in to total erotic madness... ...OR IS NORMAL HIGHLY OVERRATED? Emylou has always been level-headed. But then, she's never met anybody like Joe. When he's around Emylou feels like going deliciously, wickedly insane. Or maybe that old brothel magic is finally starting to work on her. As acting mayor, Emylou is determined to keep Joe in Saunders long enough to save her hometown...even if she has to take leave of her senses and drive him completely crazy to do it...
