To be able to continue to share my music with those who find pleasure in listening to it is very satisfying. My music is inspired by my feelings and, like most art, is an expression of my thoughts and dreams. Since my playing is like painting a picture of what is inside of me, each rendition of a basic melody may evolve into a totally different composition. As I construct this canvas of sound, the experience of what I hear becomes awesome for me. It is like dreaming out loud, freeing me from intrusions and allowing me to experience the sheer joy of creating a portrait of sound. It is my hope that as you listen to this music you will be filled with thoughts and dreams...of the richness we have within to share with each other. May each day of your life bring you abundant riches and love. I would like to thank Art DeMar for having enough faith in me to produce my albums. I would also like to thank Jodie Folkring for her friendship and talents. Very special thanks and all my love to my parents for their unending support...I love you.
