From Chicago comes Haegers Bend. This guitar driven rock band emphasizes powerful vocals and great melodies that keep you going in many different ways. Paul Wilson and Mike Wilson formed Haegers Bend with the goal of creating a powerful live rock band that could improvise as well a great studio band willing to experiment. "Atomic Dreamland" the debut release by the band , shows the many sides of music the band has to offer . From the powerful start of " Open Door" to the harmonies of " Take Me Away" and " Blunt 69" Haegers Bend takes you on a trip in their minds. With the release of the CD the evolution of the band comes right out. Many different elements coming together to make one great picture. Having many different influences, the band creates many different moods and emotions. Trippy psychedelics, great improvisation, tastesful harmonies and there you have a great band, Haegers Bend. The band likes to expand on their songs for their live shows. What was a three minute song can turn into a fifteen minute adventure, with lots of twists and turns for everyone to enjoy. Recording many Lo-fi recordings are another way the band likes to expand on there sound. Spending hours to get an idea out,cutting a demo of a complete song or just recording live, Haegers Bend enjoys it all.
