Indie urban folk, singer/songwriter style with strong, sexy, soulful vocals. Eclectic and edgy, great lyrics and storytelling, Tight, percussive grooves and cool blends of acoustic electric guitar, piano, organ, synths and bass. 10 MP3 Songs ROCK: Roots Rock, POP: with Live-band Production Details: Concrete Cotton is Havis' self-released debut CD. She is a singer/songwriter with a lot to share. Her voice slides into your ears like a smooth sip of whisky wrapped in velvet, inhale the vibe. She sings with a sexy, smoky growl that surfaces long enough to put a smile on your face. She offers something fresh in this day of saturated rhetoric. This 10 song creation will keep your CD player on a continuous loop yearning for more, more, more. She was born and raised in Oakland, CA. She got her first guitar when she was 9 and took lessons for a while, but shelved it for a competitive nature in sports. She picked it up again late in High School and has never looked back. In 2003, she performed with the Nappy Roots on a couple of television dates, Pepsi Smash and The Tonight Show. She loves to sit at home writing, but she'll soon venture out into the big bad world to perform them as well. Keep your eyes and ears open and step on for the ride!
