$5.99 INTRO SALE /ersatz industrial metal w/ cheep graphics, cheep production, lots of effects what more could you want? lyrics about Bilbo Baggins, Bugaloos, Battlefield Earth, HR Puf-N-Stuf, Dark Matter, Tachyons, Cheese, Razzleflabbenz, God 22 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Industrial, METAL: Industrial Metal Details: Greetings Earth Modular Unit! The reason we write is that presently we are trapped in a nethersphere, and the only communications we are able to send are with the person sending this CD, and the only sound we are able to receive is the beautiful sound coming from your speakers. We have developed a secretly encoded CD in hopes that you will play it over and over. If you will play this over and over again, the hopes are that the furtive cryptographic frequencies (un-audible to the standard Earth modular unit) will unlock the netherspheric entrapment and set us free to visit your planet. Do not worry. Most planets fare well with minimal damage. We are mostly harmless. The CD containing the frequencies has been enveloped in the following songs. The CD contains both vocal and non-vocal versions of each song (the CD repeats itself with the non-vocal arrangements after tract 12, the last vocal song). Ignore the strange background noises those are just the frequencies that we have embedded to set us free! JJ 1) Zillion Faces I hears a zillion voices crying out for meaning and I swears they sounds a lot like me I sees a zillion faces that yearn for the notion of being and I swears they looks a lot like me 2) I Went on a Ride I went on a ride In the great space coaster With Tinky Winky And his brave little toaster. He said No it dont cook the custard even But while others go to 10 This one goes to 11 We went to the restaurant At the end of the universe and he read to me from the reading rainbow connection Verse by verse by verse Whats your Name Whats your quest Whats your favorite color come and take a look into my magic mirror You can stay if you brought your towel But please dont call me Barney Strange is our Situation here upon the earth Stranger still the longing of our soul Better to light a candle than to curse the darkness Yet we all want someone to say well done. I went to a BBQ and what did I see HR Pufnstuff coming after me He said we have an interview with the new zoo review With Dr. Horton the Who, Winnie the Pooh, and The Buggaloos There is no reason to get excited, HR kindly spoke There are many among us Who think life is but a syndicated show Whats your Name Whats your quest Whats your favorite color come and take a look into my magic mirror You can stay if you brought your towel But please dont call me Barney Strange is our Situation here upon the earth Stranger still the longing of our soul Better to light a candle than to curse the darkness Yet we all want someone to say well done. So I said to the Captain Please bring me my Chocolate Dan said we havent had that Box here Since Frank Farion forgot my number When I close my eyes at the end of the session Will the answer be forty-two guess it pends on the question. 3) Dannys Magick Cellphone Wouldnt it be neat if the moon was made of green cheese And the earth was a bagel Then God could have breakfast on the way to work And heat His coffee on the sun Oh Danny boy the pipes are calling From glen to mountain side its been a thousand two hundred and ninety days and your dinosaurs have all died Life was so much simpler before we killed the man on the moon the pleasures of life much sweeter before the plate divorced the spoon Put down your cell phone Put on your shades Roll down your window Take a look around before the ambiance fades one thousand three hundred and thirty five days since we drank to our surmise I still cant read the Writing on the wall must be the clouds in my eyes We have slaughtered all the unicorns and caged up all the dragons is there anyone remaining who'll have a drink with me and Bilbo Baggins Put on your big hat put down your PDA time is sipping cider from an hour glass as Lucys selling wisdom for the price of lemonade As Dannys dinosaur takes a bow before he slips into his enclave now just a star in the face of the sky no time to see him wave when swimming in the tapestry of a rich mans kingdom never forget the simple smile of a clown who loves to dance put on your trench coat Put away your aftershave dont forget your goulashes come and join the masquerade as we serenade home jump back patty whack give a Danny his bone and when this mortal flesh shall fail I will leave a light on 4) Birdies Bouncing Off Windows I see birdies bouncing off windows Simply because they dont believe they are there There are no second chances Their bodies are broken by the choices they have made And goliath comes, and he swallows them down and he smiles Cuz you know he thinks its a game, doggy snacks from heaven And fate laughs as she lays down her final hand And we turn our heads as we wonder if the gamble was worth the price we paid 5) Cheese -with apologies to Dave Matthews There are hundreds of thousands of things you can eat that are not cheese 6) Yertle Batholomew Yertle and Bartholomew sitting with in the vestibule searching for exotic tools to computate the Golden rule If Bartholomew had 500 hats He would want 500 more his cracked emphatic intellect cannot keep objective score He would not clock it in a box he could not with a fox in socks its safe behind his mental blocks locked his rocks from Goldilox fixation stirred with whey and curds is symbiosis with social thrombosis his pretense builds his defense rational internal splicing spoils our fare with over-spicing dont let our need for reason blemish the dance dont let our want for bits portion taint the romance Yertle says that what I do the limbic system tells me to Ive drank the wishy-washy brew and never tasted anything new Over the hill and through the woods the wolf is surely waiting dilapidated vigor the caveat yertle van turtle still wants to be king Synchronic allure cannot confer his pending diagnosis of his apotheosis, he gathers reference without preference incoherent cognant pricing taste it once again this time with icing dont let our need for reason blemish the dance dont let our want for bits and portion taint the romance bitter tasting weed and brine oft mistaken for bread and wine from the start to finish line we are more than our design 7) Schrdingers Kitty (Strings) This is my corrugated ditty about a pitiable little kitty Dissipating in a chromodynamic shroud when along came a spider upon the supercollider to derail his fractal cloud she said my name is charlotte as she weaves her scarlet I have come to entwine your reactor he said kitties like me need no name we have no claim to fame but my imaginary friends like to call me factor web-weaver web weaver weave me a web where love and suffering and visions wed Where wind and soil share the wine and the bread where father time has his fortune read I have sipped from the chalice Threaded yarn through the palace acquire designed, of life defined, watching time cast silhouettes I have treaded down the random walk twist the hands of the clock bake a mistake, my cake to partake, I still have my XFL season tickets She listens to the tune that gently fumes from the strings of factors fiddle with a song no one wrote he misses not one note not one yod or one tittle she told of her bought with the water spout and the clout that washed her spirit out how all the kings men and all the kings horses could not dry her doubt but the sun did return between the drenched and the burn she found a route through the drought, her serenity to yearn my children dropped their guitars, return to mars to discover their worth in vittles Now they talk about moms piggy, and their old friend Ziggy watching battlefield earth and eating skittles they step into the room weave the strings upon the loom making garments to embellish their attire as the strings become the noose that asphyxiate the truths They have basted upon the fire Tachyons dance in this hyper luminal romance with a hey diddle diddle, we fade from the middle of the spindle The strings vigorously unwind as he smiles at his Cheshire design the line between the bronze and the brittle the kitty in his cradle spins his fractured dreidel trying to win another silver spoon just a loan from the unknown whats intricately been sewn between splendid, extraordinary and Picayune yet the resolutions we swallow are like the intuitions we borrow no one can taste our curds and whey through all said and done we dance upon the ephemeron and feast from a tailored buffet web weaver web weaver spin me my fate the late cant implicate, nor detractors debate estate calls to estate, and time wont wait at the gate there are plates Id rather not ornate 8) Pint of Dark matter Crack the quasar over the skillet scramble it up with some eggs and wine Take a pint or two of dark matter season it with rosemary sage and Thyme the handmaids have offered us a piece of bread are we nothing further than transmographed stardust simple amalgamations of lime soda and floor crust are we strange and are we charmed have we abandoned the haven of old McDonalds farm nothing more than supplementary quirks in space time progressive impediments of intention and rhyme the handmaids have offered us a cup of wine are we nothing further than transmographed stardust simple amalgamations of lime soda and floor crust 9) Ahabs Bee of Death yesterday I got stung to death by an itty bitty bee and it hurt oh so bad made me sad, why oh why, made me cry I dont wanna wanna die hurt so bad made me sad no, not glad made me mad then it stung me to death again but it didnt hurt quite as bad, but it still made me cry why o why all the pain in my brain falls like rain leaves a stain from the strain hurt so bad still kinda sad still not glad made me mad Ahab calls us to join him to slay the mighty beast but in our lust for revenge we soon become the feast Then it stung me to death again for a third time feeling kinda numb, feeling fine and appeased the touch of the bees its my thing the caress of the sting bees my friend dont wanna end dont hurt so bad, kinda glad I like being sad I enjoy being mad Then with one one more sting I couldnt live without the zesty sting oh the joy the sting brings numb the pain what shall I ever gain from the stain in my brain it dont hurt at all like shopping at the mall the writings on the wall Ive become so small What do we gain when Cain offers grain upon the alter of distain and despair, our rage cannot repair the shoes we wear Ahab calls us to join him to slay the mighty beast but in our lust for revenge we soon become the feast 10) Dancing upon the Ephemeron 11) The Great Opaque divide Betty Jo Jingle and Bobby Jangle come from the world at a different angle and found themselves in forbidden romance in a land where Razzleflabbenz never dare to dance Bettys hair was fuchsia Bobbys hair was chartreuse Bettys tail was acute Bobbys tail was obtuse For the field of Loshon Hora an orthogonal wall grew between the shades myths and legends brewed the stew lost in analysis, brotherhood unglued Betty Jo cried If we left all the primary colors pure never have all the beautiful shades of fur let the Shades of fur start to blur I must confer, to be assure Bobby replied Then fill up the glasses as quick as you can, And sprinkle the table with buttons and bran And this same hair that smiles today tomorrow Ill be dyeing. for Bobby and Betty Jos love implied the disengagement of the opaque divide maybe somewhere they forgot to give ponderance why it had to be this way There is unrest in the meadow There is trouble the in glade we could become equal with trimmer, sheers, and blade Would noone truly hate if we all epilate or would this end in futility until we learn to accept the potpourri we dont need pathogenic ocular dissonance we dont need to abandon our inheritance we just need to learn to dance and stop romancing irrelevance They, hand in hand, with wandering steps and slow, Search for the where the sidewalk ends and where the Giving Tree grows And while all is said and done let us unspin walls undone and let the path be run run with unity love and absolution 12) Sum of All Things It was mid October when we got the news it was late Febrilary when it came to pass now the first of Janutober and still many questions unasked Old Saint Nick sips his last coke silly Samhain tells his final joke and peter rabbit has gone his way to greener fields Some come to unremember Some come to unregret here at the House mother goose has built Dannys dinosaur finally has come home folly once scorned over popcorn as we charade across the stage now we take a bow as we are known as we are now here at the sum of all things SDG De Coloures, Table Of Paul, SWVA #15 AKA Phloide the Garden Gnome Liberation Front additional sounds like and influences: Sounds Like Blackhouse, Ministry, Celldweller, Sorrow of Seven, Deitiphobia, Caul, globalwavesystem, Argyle Park, Nine Inch Nails, Talking Heads, Marilyn Manson, Beastie Boys, Berlin, Biogenesis, Blackhouse, Blenderhead, Blondie, Breakfast With Amy, Calvin and Hobbes, Celldweller, Charlie Peacock, Circle of Dust, David Bowie, Death Tongue, Depeche Mode, Devo, Devo,Dilbert, Dirge, Douglas Adams, Echo Hollow, Eephus, Electric Light Orchestra, Electric Mayhem, Element of Faith, ELOI, Elvis Costello, Ethereal Scourge, Eurythmics, Falco, Family Guy, Fell Venus, From Nothing, Genesis, , Gnashing of Teeth, Godsent Humans, Harvey Birdman, HR Pufnstuf, Hugh Ross, ignatious, Ignite, Industry Eleven, Jethro Tull, Keith Green, Kings X, Klank, Krush, Life Savers, Madness, Mark Heard, Mental Destruction, Michael Card, Michael Knott, Milli Vanilli, Mindrage, Missing Persons, Mortification, Nailed, Narnia, Paradigm Lost, Paramecium,
